

LATEST VACANCY, BRUNEL ENERGY

Written by Admin

Friday, 10 February 2012 19:10 -

Brunel Energy provides specialist personnel to the international oil & gas, petrochemical, power generation and construction industries. Our clients are predominantly major operating companies and international engineering or construction companies. Through a network of 35 offices in 5 continents (Europe, America, Asia, Africa and Australia) we currently second nearly 4,000 Technical Engineering Specialists to the largest multi-national Oil & Gas Companies and major EPC Contractors, through well-established global supply agreements.

JOB TITLE: WELL INTERVENTION

LOCATION: Lagos

JOB

Ensure the suitability to operational requirements of personnel, equipment and services

Ensure selected equipment and system are supplied and operated within company safety, quality and environmental requirement.

Write procedures, guidelines and reports for equipment supply and use.

Prepare the well intervention budget

Perform logistic plan including operational time planners: coordination equipment and operational interfaces: operational assessments (HAZOP etc)

Follow up equipment qualifications, FAT, Integration tests if any

Liaise with other entities for studies, engineering input and details required for preparation of well intervention programme, plans and contingencies.

Maintain good interface with other entities (production, well performance, GSR) for the optimization of well intervention operations.

Coordinate necessary meetings between company services providers and rig.

Conduct HAZIP/HAZOP meetings and workgroups

Guarantee the accomplishment of the intervention operation in compliance with codes of practice, safety and environmental protection, all while optimizing costs and lead times

Prepare the well intervention report capturing lessons to improve future work.

Any other work of a similar nature as many as requested by COMPANY

REQUIREMENTS

Possess at least a higher education Diploma (eg. HND or equivalent) but preferably a Bachelor's Degree or higher in a technical or engineering subject

10-15yrs years' experience which should include working on Gas/Oil production platforms,

LATEST VACANCY, BRUNEL ENERGY

Written by Admin

Friday, 10 February 2012 19:10 -

Semi-Submersible's and Jack-up / Land based drilling rigs Previous multidisciplinary Team experience

Extensive experience of planning, design & supervision of well service activities including:

Work-over & abandonment;

Well testing;

Completions deployment;

Wellhead maintenance;

Field operations: snubbing & hoists, wire line, well simulation / pumping (coiled tubing), & artificial lift

Valid IWCF Supervisors Certificate

Experience in Drilling Engineering advantageous

Strong technical & HSSE skills: familiar with risk management tools & techniques + incident management.

Fully conversant with well control criteria, equipment spec's / selection & well servicing operational practices

A drive for results delivery thru strengths in analysis & innovation in problem solving

Accomplished in coaching & leading individuals & Teams.

Strong communication skills

CLICK LINK TO APPLY

http://www.brunelenergy.net/job/well-intervention.411539.lynkx?country_nid=39248&pageStart=12&pageSize=10